CHHATH PUJA CELEBRATION IMAGES IN BIHAR

The Sonapur Mela, or cattle fair, is a month-long event that takes place in Sonpur, Bihar, India, around Kartik Purnima in November. It's one of Asia's largest cattle fairs and is also known as the Harihar Kshetra Mela and Chhattar Mela. The fair is believed to have started in the 4th century BC during the reign of Chandragupta Maurya and is popular for its livestock trading, religious activities, and cultural programs.
