YOGA is derived from the Sanskrit word 'Yog' which in turn, means 'to join' or 'to unite'. Hence, yoga is a union with God to live a contented, peace ful and balanced life. Passed down several generations by yogis, rishis and seers, it acts as a way to offer liberation and expansion of human consciousness.

YOGA aims to achieve this through a series of physical and mental exercises. At the physical level, the methods comprise various yoga postures or 'Asanas' that aim to keep the body healthy. The mental techniques include breathing exercises or 'pranayama' and meditation or 'Dhyana' to discipline the mind.

MEDITATION is a practice where an individual trains the mind or induces a mode of consciousness, either to realize some benefit or for the mind to simply acknowledge its content without becoming identified with that content, or as an end in itself.

Yoga in 5 point.

1. Yoga, as a disciplined method for attaining a goal.
2. Yoga, as techniques of controlling the body and the mind.
3. Yoga, as a name of one of the schools or systems of philosophy (darśana).
4. Yoga, in connection with other words, such as "hatha-, mantra-, and laya-, referring to traditions specializing in particular techniques of yoga.
5. Yoga, as the goal of Yoga practice.

Welcome to the Maldives,

where sands are white as the smiles of the locals, where fish swim happily in the warm waters of the Indian Ocean, where the weather is a dream, and the deep rays of the sun wait to engulf you their arms.

Location and Geography

The country is made up of 1,190 coral islands formed around 26 natural ring-like atolls, spread over 90,000 square kilometers. These atolls structures are formed upon a sharp ridge rising from the ocean, making way for their secluded uniqueness.

Culture

The islands of Maldives appear in-between the trading route of the Indian Ocean. Thus settlers, and visitors from neighbouring regions and around the world have come in contact with the islands for as long as history has been recorded.

The Environment

The islands are protected by thousands of reefs that need to be alive for this unique archipelago to exist in future. The corals on our reefs need its countless inhabitants to feed on them for the corals to re-grow.

Weather and Climate: -

Weather in Maldives is usually picture perfect: sunlit days, breezy nights, balmy mornings, and iridescent sunsets. With the average temp. at about 30 Deg. Cel. throughout the year, the sun is a constant on most days, shining through treetops, creating lacy patterns on your feet.

Maldives has two distinct seasons; dry season and wet season with the former extending from January to March and the latter from mid-May to November.

Immigration and Visa: -

Tourists are issued a 30-day visa on arrival. A valid travel document is necessary. You can obtain circumstantial visa grants through the Department of Immigration and Emigration in Male'.

Customs: -

It is prohibited to bring in firearms, drugs, pornography or idols of worship into the Maldives. Tourists also cannot bring in dogs, pigs and pork items. Alcohol and pork products under a special license are available in resort islands.

Things To Do In Maldives

Surfing in the Maldives

With so many exposed to the mighty waves of the Indian Ocean, Maldives is well known as a grand surf destination. Sculptured, Curved and shaped to the ideal conditions by the relief of the underwater terrain, some of the surf are a dream-come-true for the avid surf enthusiast.

Diving Maldives

The warm seas of Maldives have high visibility throughout the year, with water clear enough to see the passing fish as far as fifty metres away at times. The result of these perfect conditions have created one of the world's richest diving coral reef areas.

The Maldives Honeymoon

If a honeymoon is meant to be a celebration of love in an intimate, secluded, & most importantly, beautiful setting, then Maldives is the world's best backdrop for these. There are endless ways to let the magic of the islands dazzle you on your holiday as a couple.

A Day At The SPA

YOU DESERVE IT! You work hard all year. You know you do. You travel half way round the world to get here. Why? To relax and unwind. Well take it to the next level. Go into the Spa and get that relaxing massage! Every resort in the Maldives has a Spa.
